Sheriff Geoff Dean Ventura County Sheriff

Geoff Dean is the 19th Sheriff of Ventura County and a 38-year veteran of the Ventura County Sheriff's Office. He is a lifetime resident of California, born in Los Angeles and raised in Simi Valley. Geoff and his family are 26 year residents of Camarillo. He and his wife Marlene of 29 years have two children. Prior to being elected Sheriff, he worked varied assignments throughout the Department including commanding the SWAT Team, Chief of Police for the City of Moorpark and overseeing three of the Sheriff's four divisions.

Geoff has been involved in various community activities: Camarillo Noon Time Rotary, the Board of Directors for Casa Pacifica home for abused kids, the American Cancer Society's Community Council and the Boys Scouts of America.

Chief Jeri Williams Oxnard Police department

Chief Jeri Williams has been the Chief of Police with the Oxnard Police Department since January 2011. Contributing to Chief Williams' strong leadership and organizational management style is a broad educational background. Williams holds a BS Degree from Arizona State University, a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership from Northern Arizona University, where she has also completed her Comprehensive Examinations in pursuit of her Doctorate in Educational Leadership.

On a personal note, Chief Williams has been married to her husband, Judge Cody Williams (South Phoenix Justice of the Peace) for 24 years and two sons, Alan and Cody.
